Featured Teachers

Jeff Driggs – Jeff has been clogging and teaching for over 40 years. He has taught throughout the U.S., Canada, Europe and Australia and has received numerous awards and honors. Over his years of teaching, he has written over 300 dances. His routines are taught and danced worldwide, and his DancePack instructional video series has subscribers around the world. Jeff has served as an officer in many national clogging organizations, and is the owner and editor of the Double Toe Times clogging magazine. He lives in West Virginia.

Chip Summey – Chip has been clogging since 1982. He is a Certified Judge and Certified Clogging Instructor, with active participation in leading training sessions. His competition team, the Southern Connection cloggers of Asheville, North Carolina have been National Champions and points champions in several categories, and have danced in International and World Festivals. He has 5 competition teams, from pee wee to Adult. He has taught and judged all over the US, including the past 17 CLOG National Conventions.

Cis Hinkle – Cis has delighted contra and square dancers since 1985 with her skilled teaching, welcoming manner, playful enthusiasm, and masterful selection of dances. She is in great demand at music and dance festivals all over the US, England, and Denmark. When not on the road, Cis teaches Tai Chi classes in her native Atlanta, Georgia.

Music by: The Old 78s

Featuring Ray & Melanie Palmer, Sarah White, and Carole Anne Rose

The Old 78's music recreates the WILD ENERGY and DRIVING FORCE of the great Hillbilly Fiddle Bands. It is almost impossible to describe the fun that these musicians can create with really big saxophones, and banjos ranging in size from surprisingly small to extremely huge, not to mention fiddles and a kazoo.
